Excursion 1: Lake Cruise.

A 45 minute cruise aboard an air-conditioned enclosed ferry around the main basin of Lake Burley Griffin leaving from, and returning to, the National Museum jetty. With informative commentary, the cruise will give a different perspective of the original city layout, architecture, and its development over time. Afternoon tea will be served on shore after the cruise.

OR

Excursion 2: Original Australian Forestry School.

A short return bus trip will view the first Australian Forestry School, opened in 1927 (designed by JS Murdoch). The interior displays original panelling and parquetry selected to showcase the best features of Australian timbers. Some original items of furniture on display will continue this theme. There will be a short presentation on the history and impact the School had on Australian cabinet making. Afternoon tea will be served
